

14: What Makes Christianity Unique?

Suggested Facebook Posts

FB: Christianity is not about what we do as human beings in order to please God, but rather, it's about what God has done for us so that we could have an eternal, peaceful relationship with Him. In John 3:16, Jesus' disciple, John, records Jesus' promise: "For God loved the world in this way: He gave His One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life." Christianity, unlike the religions of the world, offers salvation not based on human merit, but on God's free offer of pardon. This is what makes Christianity unique. Learn more about Apologetics and others ways Christianity is unique, by visiting ApologeticsBible.com.

FB: So then, why do Christians send missionaries around the world? Why do we feel compelled to defend our faith against criticisms and encourage the world to trust Jesus? It's because God has offered the world a gift called the gospel. The word gospel literally means "good news." And for a world caught up in false, man-made religious systems of works and rituals, the gift of Jesus Christ is not only unique, it's very good news. Discover how Apologetics can fuel your faith at ApologeticsBible.com

Suggested Tweets

TWEET: (from Blog) Christianity is unique amongst all of the faiths of the world because Christianity is actually not a religion! #ConfidentFaith bit.ly/More2C

TWEET: (from TM – pg 33) While he may not always satisfy us with full-service answers, he's promised he can satisfy with fullness of joy. #ConfidentFaith bit.ly/More2C

TWEET: (from ASBS pg. 1010) Matthew 7:1 is twisted to validate people who believe that we should not judge others. #ConfidentFaith bit.ly/More2C