

8: Why Would A Good God Send People To Hell?

FB: Does anyone deserve to go to hell? The Bible says we all do (Rm 3:23). We enter life with the sentence of hell hanging over us, because the first humans—Adam and Eve—rebelled against God (Gn 3). Thanks to them, we are all rebels by nature, and our rebellion is an infinite offense to holy God. Can you really doubt that we are all sinners? Look at the world around you—evidence that humans are sinful surrounds us daily. Read the news; surf the Web. While you're at it, take a close look at your own heart. If you're honest, you'll admit that your thoughts and actions don't always line up with God's holiness. FB: Does God enjoy sending people to hell? No. He'd rather see people repent and be saved. In the Old Testament, He pleaded with Israel saying, "I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked person should turn from his way and live. Repent, repent of your evil ways! Why will you die, house of Israel?" (Ezk 33:11). In the New Testament, Jesus told the people of His day, "I assure you: Anyone who hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment but has passed from death to life" (Jn 5:24). Paul says God "wants everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1Tm 2:4), and Peter reminds his readers that the Lord is "patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance" (2Pt 3:9). God is just, but we see that He also is loving. He has provided a way for us to escape punishment in hell. Jesus Christ is that way.
